Call for Proposals: 2019 Brocher Foundation Residencies

The Brocher Foundation is located on the shores of the Geneva Lake, in Hermance (Geneva - Switzerland). The Brocher Foundation residencies last between one and three months. They give researchers the opportunity to work at the Brocher Centre on projects on the ethical, legal and social implications for humankind of recent medical research and new technologies. Every month a dozen of visiting researchers live and concentrate on their research project at the Foundation. Why apply?

- Write a book, articles, an essay, a monograph or your PhD thesis in a peaceful environment
- Have the opportunity to meet other researchers from different disciplines and countries
- Have the opportunity to meet experts from numerous International Organizations & Non- Governmental Organizations based in Geneva (WHO, WTO, WIPO, UNHCR, ILO, WMA, ICRC, ...)

Submission Deadline: January 15

Call for Applications: Hecht-Levi Postdoctoral Fellowship Program in Bioethics , Johns Hopkins Berman Institute of Bioethics

The Johns Hopkins Berman Institute of Bioethics is pleased to invite applications for the Hecht-Levi Postdoctoral Fellowship Program in Bioethics. The admissions committee is seeking one to two uniquely qualified postdoctoral applicants to begin this two-year fellowship in September 2018. Applicants with at least some exposure to Bioethics during their education are encouraged to apply, though an extensive background in bioethics is not required. This admissions process is highly competitive, and only one or two applicants are accepted into the program each year.

Submission Deadline: December 15
